THE LUNATION OF OCTOBER 14, 1947

This lunation carries through until November 12th; and in connection with it I want you to reread what we gave last month on the autumn equinox chart, for that is still a vital element in our affairs. There is a rather somber tone to this lunation, for we find Saturn right on the ascendant. Ordinarily, the month of October is a rather happy period; but this year, the second half of October and the first week of November will be marked by a seriousness that is not the usual thing. Before this lunar period is over, Mars will cross Pluto and Saturn; it crosses Pluto around October 27th and Saturn between the 10th and 15th of November. We consider this a rather dangerous period for the people of the United States; and believe we can truthfully say that something in the nature of a crisis will occur, or possibly several, governing different departments of life.

If you deal in stocks and shares, or gamble in any way, (and that is gambling), you had better watch your step; the stock market is apt to be rather erratic. It could soar, and it could crash; the soaring would likely come when Mars crosses Pluto, which takes place on the 28th, it may come a little before or after, depending on the lunar aspects. The 28th is more significant than the 27th, due to the many good lunar aspects. And the drop would likely come around the 12th to 15th of November as Mars conjoins Saturn; and the Sun squares Saturn and Mars on the New Moon of November. This is a time when great caution should be used in all moves; for not only will it rock the boat in our own country, it will be world-wide in its effect, for truly the heavens declare the glory of God, and as above, so below. And I have found that the planetary picture in the heavens is a true reflection of our mundane affairs; just as accurate as the ticking of your watch, with its seconds, minutes and hours.

Last month we told you that the troubles in the motion picture industry were only beginning; you will see additional proof of this as you read your daily papers, for this month finds 3 major malefics in the sign of Leo, and 2 of them in the 12th, the house of sorrow. It certainly behooves you Leo people to walk more or less circumspectly. I have written an article, "Drunk with Power", but there is no room for it in this issue; in this article I analyze the charts of several Leo leaders. It is unfortunate I cannot include it in this number, because the two should go together; each month The Herald is bulging, and much good material has to be rejected, as one more sheet would cost us another 3¢ postage unless we sent it 3rd class mail, which we do not want to do as we had so many complaints of non-delivery of copies, which may have been accidental, or may not. Suffice it to say that if you are a Leo, and especially if you are a leader of a group or organization, walk very cautiously.

Another indication, coming under the heading of a crisis, will be in the realm of health; Saturn on the ascendant in a lunation reading is not good for public health. Having Saturn right on my ascendant at birth, I am fully conscious of the import of this; it has a paralyzing effect on the native's life, especially in the first half, so much so that very few children with Saturn in that position survive childhood, unless there are some powerful modifying forces, as was the case in my own chart: Mars, Mercury trine to Jupiter in Leo in the 4th, and Saturn sextile to Jupiter. Without that boost I would never have survived. I mention this because I know more about myself than I do about anyone else, and I know the effect of this upon my own life; and so you will pardon the personal reference.

Now you will recall that in my general remarks on the equinoctial chart of September 23rd I mentioned the 3 malefics in the house of health and the house of labor, that is, the 6th. Not only will there be a crisis in our national economy affecting the stock market and the motion picture industry, in fact the whole entertainment realm, but there will be two other effects. First, this lunation brings out the promise of the equinox chart regarding the health of the nation; and these malefics falling in the sign of the heart indicate that people with a weak heart must favor themselves, for there will be a heavy toll of deaths from heart complaints of various kinds.

From my own experience I am satisfied that many deaths from heart failure could have been avoided, by avoiding heavy meals, especially with heavy exercise right after them, I have seen a number of sudden deaths from heart failure which I was convinced need not have been. You wouldn't think of skating on a pond with very thin ice; then why should you exert your heart unduly when the planetary picture indicates that the ice, figuratively speaking, is thin? These remarks apply especially if the progressed Sun, Moon or other planets are afflicting Neptune or Saturn, indicating a period of low vitality. I recall three cases where friends had an operation with the Moon afflicting Neptune; they all died, not primarily because of the operation but because they taxed their heart unduly at a period when the ice was thin, there was not enough vitality to carry them over. By a period of waiting they could have weathered the storm.

My good friend Jim Wilkinson died under that aspect, although I had warned him at least a year ahead, of thin ice during that period; and yet he launched into a terrific, strenuous battle when that aspect was in operation. And so I am giving this unusual emphasis; and whether you have a weak heart or not, you Leo people must step lightly. Much of this adverse health indication, in this lunar period, is due to the sober tone of Saturn on the ascendant, as having a depressing effect on people in general. You can well understand the biblical injunction 'Be ye transformed by the renewal of your mind.' This is largely a mental and emotional condition, and we can rise above a good deal of it by a positive mental attitude; not that I advise ignoring the danger signals, but I do advise going easy in all affairs, for the grouping of these 3 planets, and one passing the other two, leaves an indelible stamp on all departments of life. So don't fit into the Saturn pattern by being fearful, it just isn't necessary; cultivate a cheerful but cautious frame of mind, and refuse to be dragged down by the news that will appear in your daily papers. In other words, be in the world, but not of it; you don't have to crash because crashes are indicated.

This combination indicates a stormy period, and a crash in some of the departments of life I have indicated; the unthinking public will be forced to think, and that is all to the good. They have left the burden of national affairs on the shoulders of a small group, like the 30 so-called secessionists; but the planetary picture indicates they will be forced to face reality, it is a sort of judgment day, and should not be feared by thinkers. The vast majority of people have to be scared to death before they will do the right and obvious thing. The people as a whole will develop a slow burn, which will result in a pretty mad frame of mind when the climax comes, possibly when Mars crosses Pluto. Personally I consider these lunations very encouraging, because the people as a whole will be forced to face reality. Now what's terrible about that: isn't it fair, isn't it just? And so I rejoice in these indications; and patriotic leaders throughout the nation will eventually benefit, due to the fact that people will be forced to face reality, and they will not like it. This planetary pattern will bear results for some time to come; certainly it will reflect itself in the coming election, for tens of thousands, yes, millions of Americans will lose that Neptunian mental fog condition; the scales will fall from their eyes and they will see things as they actually are and not as the New Deal politicians have been telling them for so long.

And now re-read what we wrote last month regarding Saturn in the house of labor, with Pluto and Mars. Organized labor, or the plutocratic underworld overlords of labor, are drunk with power; and the copy book says pride comes before a fall. And great will be the fall thereof. I noted yesterday that William Green said that the A F L is following the lead of the C I O; namely, they refuse to obey the law and require their heads to sign the affidavit that they do not belong to the Communist party; thereby losing their bargaining powers under the National Labor Relations act.

That was a bad decision, in view of the planetary picture; they couldn't have made it at a worse time. The Taft-Hartley law is going to stand against all that organized labor can bring against it, and their action is all to the good for the country, for it indicates what a strangle-hold the Reds have in the labor movement. It is going to be one of the main issues in the coming Presidential election; and the Truman administration, the New Deal and the organized labor element will all crash together. Now what's bad about that? The real workers will be benefitted; they will be freed, and will be better off financially, and the leaders will be cut down to a proper size, to perform their real function, that of real servants of the workers and not the bosses as at present.

It is quite possible there will be another mine disaster, especially when Mars comes up and squares Jupiter towards the latter part of November. There is still another department of life through which these planetary patterns will express themselves; and that is something in the nature of a crime wave. Mars in the 12th always indicates a crime wave, and we may expect the hand of the saboteur and the arsonist to be active. But after all, it is only bringing out, what is deeply imbedded in the consciousness of the nation.

The lunation proper occurs in the 3rd house, where it will stimulate all 3rd house activities, which include travel, writing and publicity; and were it not for the serious nature of Saturn, would benefit business as a whole. And it certainly bears out what we have said about the people expressing themselves; the 3rd house is the house of expression for the people of the nation, and so the type of material in your papers and magazines will follow the pattern I have outlined. The people are no longer Neptune-led, they have become realists, and just a little bit mad at the deception practiced upon them. And so you will read less wishy-washy love-everybody stuff; the frame of mind will be 'Let's clean house, we have been fooled; we have been gypped; let's do something about it.' That's the frame of mind indicated by this planetary pattern. Even though we have Venus, the planet of peace, and also Neptune, in this 3rd house, which indicates that a certain section will be playing the same old tunes; but the vast majority want no more of it.

The printing and publishing business as a whole will be abnormally active; check up on your local printer or publisher, and you will find him snowed under with work. And some unusual literary products will hit the market; it indicates some unusual literature of a spiritual nature pertaining to our national life. It also indicates that the public as a whole are turning more to spiritual things for solace. That is very encouraging; for we are too apt to think our problems are material, whereas they are in reality spiritual problems. My experience in teaching for the past forty years indicates that most sickness or diseases are spiritual in origin, and that the patient needs spiritual chiropractics; and that when they get that, they will cease to do certain things that make them ill. And so the nation as a whole is getting down to fundamentals, after being enveloped in a Neptunian fog for 12 to 15 years, which was clearly indicated in our national chart, for we have had Uranus square to Neptune in our national chart; but the fog is now being dispelled. We have been seeing through a glass darkly; the windshield of our vision is being cleaned and we are going to see more clearly, things as they are.

One more thing, and we must close, for lack of space; Uranus in the 11th. And I can touch on only one phase of it, namely, there is a strong possibility that Congress will come back into session in November; at least there will be tremendous pressure to bring it about and it has a pretty good chance of succeeding. We are inclined to the belief that the planetary pattern indicates a drastic showdown with Russia; we can come to no other conclusion; and it is long since overdue, in fact it is a show-down month in all departments of life. Russia is going to learn to say 'Yes' instead of 'No, Comrade.' What a pleasant change for the rest of the world; we had begun to think that they had no such word as 'yes' in the Russian language.

While the effects on the physical plane are not going to be very pleasant, they are all good in the making, remember that. We get good crops from manure, which doesn't smell very nice; we get beautiful lilies from mud ponds; and so we as a nation will benefit by the unpleasantness that will prevail on the physical plane in the different departments I have mentioned.

PRESIDENTIAL TIMBER

There is a lot of talk today, and rightly so, as to who will be the contenders for the presidency in '48. Some schools of thought say there will be no election; that the United States will be in ruins before that time. These are mostly esoteric schools, whose timing is off; they see certain things on the other planes. That's a common mistake, and has been made by practically all the esoteric schools I know anything about. Some of them thought the thing was imminent, ten years ago. But those who make those mistakes are not astrological students.

Several years ago, I think it was in '42 or '43, we said that at the time of the great crisis in America it would take a military man to hold the reins; and I have no reason to change that statement. At present Taft is the leading contender in the Republican party; but in my opinion he will not be the next President of the United States, nor will he be the candidate in the final showdown, for he will be pushed aside by a more powerful figure. With the picture looming up, with war with Russia inevitable, it is natural that the country would think in terms of military might and power and leadership; and so, with one stroke, this eliminates Dewey, Taft, Stassen, Vandenberg, Warren and many other lesser fry.

I have already told you that Truman is through, although I believe he will be the Democratic candidate. That leaves Wallace out on the end of a limb. I may go into this subject in greater detail later on; all I desire to do at this time is to show you that certain men haven't a chance, so you will not waste any time in their behalf.

This country has been in a Neptunian fog for many years; but in '48, for the first time in a great many years, it will take a realistic view of the future. The New Deal, with its late leader, Roosevelt, has been exposed as a huge fraud. I have been greatly criticized by some of our Pollyannas; too bombastic. One preacher wrote in a few days ago, and advised me to read Dale Carnegie's book on how to make friends, although I don't know anybody who needs it more than he, for he, for due to his combative nature he practically hasn't any friends; he admits it.

The point is, I didn't come into this incarnation to make friends, I came to make enemies; and if you are not making enemies, you don't cut any ice. My mission in life is to tell the truth regardless of consequences; and that is synonymous for making enemies. If you show me a man with a big following, I will show you an individual who has followed the path of expediency, a compromiser. Of course, this picture is going to change; the truth teller is going to have a big following in the near future. In southern California we have a lot of kingdom preachers, of all sorts and sizes and colors; and in the main they have followed the path of expediency, they have trimmed their sails to the prevailing winds. Practically all of them have been for union now with Great Britain and for our going back under the Union Jack. I have stated right along that this is treason; and that such a program will never come to pass. Today, we find them trimming their sails as they see Britain disintegrating.

Two of them wrote me recently and said they never believed that; I pulled out their file and looked through their past literature, and there was the evidence. I am using this as an example, to show that this type of leadership will be eliminated in the near future; their actions prove that they lack vision. At these meetings and conventions, the Union Jack was prominent at all times; and you heard more about Ephraim Israel, or English Israel, than you did about American Israel. It is true they said that America is also a part of Israel; but no one placed America in the leading role that she is playing.

Again I am going to make enemies with this article; so be it. I have worked for the Lord in past incarnations, and occupied very prominent positions; and in that one respect the Lord knows He can depend upon me. As I have stated before, I was the leader of the children of Israel at one time after the death of Moses, and one of the books of the Bible carries my name. Some of you who read this will blow a fuse; so be it, I know what I know in this respect. This seems a digression from presidential contenders; my purpose in mentioning it is to show that although real Bible students should play a very prominent part in the next presidential election, unless they purge themselves from the British or English allegiance, they will find themselves classed with the common enemy; and they will have no one to thank but themselves. The Jews and Communists want union now with Britain, to complete the downfall of the United States of America, and many of you kingdom preachers have been playing their game through ignorance. Some of you are men and women whom I esteem very highly, you are sincere, and in earnest, but you lack vision; the intuitive faculties are not active.

I want to see you backing the right candidate when he comes up; and that candidate will be bitterly opposed to union now and going back under the Union Jack. He will be an isolationist; and in my opinion he will be a military man, as we stated nearly five years ago. And, unless we who really love America and our Bible, sort out some of our fuzzy ideas, we are going to play right into the hands of the common enemy. With a few exceptions, such as Father Coughlin, Terminiello, Curran and a few other courageous catholic priests, and Winrod and a few other Protestant preachers, (most of whom came in after the sedition case), practically all the preachers in the country were supporting the common enemy.

On points of doctrine I disagree with all these men; for instance, I could never accept the Roman Catholic Church as Christian; but I honor the above priests for their sturdy Americanism. I disagree with Winrod on points of doctrine; but he never deviated from his allegiance to and support of the Constitution. He was the only preacher in the sedition case, and one of the chief targets of this New Deal plot. I am going to touch on the sedition case elsewhere; this is a sort of outline, or sketchy article, and I shall write in greater detail on some of the subjects I have mentioned. I am only touching on them now, to emphasize that we who are fearlessly proclaiming Christian Americanism must eliminate some of the fuzzy ideas such as going back under the Union Jack; for those who persist in that will be forced into the ranks of the Communists and Jews, who want it.

When you present unpleasant facts, the average preacher gets mad; and by that one act he proves himself unworthy to lead anyone. A real teacher always welcomes the truth, no matter where it comes from, or how much it hurts. I am very anxious to see a housecleaning among the kingdom preachers; some have already reversed themselves, that's good, it is better late than never. But it would have been better if they had got religion earlier, and supported men like myself when we were being crucified. All the kingdom preachers in Southern California, with one exception, Rev. Philip Monson, ran for cover when I was arrested. We disagree with Monson on points of doctrine; he is British born, and pro-British. I was British born, but despise what the British Empire has stood for, for the past fifty or more years. In a letter to one of them recently, I said I hated everything British; that was not a wise declaration on my part, I do not hate anybody, I hate what the British Empire has stood for. Having spent the first 21 years of my life there, and then 11 years in Canada, I should know. But the past 30 years have been spent in the United States, and so I have had an opportunity to study the three countries. And during that period I have seen Canada veer more and more to the United States and away from Britain.

The Presidential election is now a year off; and if I wait until just before the election, before throwing this bomb, it would be too late to do any good. Some of you will be stunned, others as mad as a wet hen; but the fault is not mine but yours, if you react in that manner. One of the most vitriolic letters I ever received in my life, was received this week; it was from a Doctor of Divinity preaching the kingdom message. It is the kind of letter you would expect to get from the gutter; but he revealed his real self, all because I told him certain unpleasant truths. He couldn't take it.

Now, whether you are a preacher, or a patriot, you are either going to accept facts and truths, or be out of the running. The sifting is going on rapidly, and many of you leaders are going to be on the outside looking in. I want to see everyone of you serving the best interests of the good old U. S. A., the nation that God Almighty has ordained to lead the world. Forty years of study have convinced me that there is no other contender for that position; it is America, the United States, or nothing. And with us will come Canada; she cannot survive any other way. And so I plead with you to prayerfully consider this article. We Christian Americans, if we learn to pull together, can and will dictate the next presidential candidate; and that is why we have told you in this article that practically none of the present presidential aspirants have a chance.

I believe the next President of the United States will be a military man of profound worth, not a compromiser; and that man will choose men with a record free from expediency and compromising. There are three men who have possibilities, and I put them in the order that they will likely rank with this nation. General MacArthur is the leading contender, or will be when he returns to the United States; it will be like throwing a match into a gasoline tank, there will be an insistent clamor for MacArthur for President. I want you to go back and read the last issue of the old Beacon Light magazine, just before I was arrested; the July 1942 issue. Read the article, MacArthur speaks. You should read that, because it will give you a background.

Now I know that I have not mentioned ex-Governor of Ohio, now Senator, Bricker. He has a large following, but I do not think he will get the nomination for the presidency, and I want you who have long supported Bricker's candidacy to be prepared to switch to the only man who can reach the goal: I refer to Douglas MacArthur. The other two possibilities are Eisenhower and Marshall. In my opinion the part that Marshall played in the Pearl Harbor disaster has damned him for all time in the eyes of real Americans; for if his hat is thrown in the ring, the ghost of Pearl Harbor will haunt him. He played too important a part to ever ditch the consequences of his acts. And that brings us down to two men, MacArthur and Eisenhower; and MacArthur is the leading contender, or will be.

This article is not based on astrology; I shall have to eliminate a lot of the candidates before I get down to an astrological basis, and it will take more time than I possess. And I believe that within 6 months, the substance of this article will be substantiated; that is, by July of '48 MacArthur will be in the lead, or at least whenever the conventions are held. Public opinion will crystalize to such a point that it will force the hand of the politician. Already there are Eisenhower clubs throughout the nation. He is not a heavy-weight; he has a nice personality, being a Libra; but he is being picked by the wrong class of people, and that alone should make us suspicious. The next President of the United States needs something more than a good Libra personality; he will be a man of stern countenance, and, like the first President, a military man. And I do not believe his name will be Eisenhower. I believe it will be General MacArthur.

I said I would not be specific in this respect; I am specifying, and I do not think I shall have to modify it. It is going to take a military man, one in whom the country has absolute confidence; and that confidence must be based on past performance. And where is the man in the field who has the Washington or Lincoln qualities? They are both Aquarians, and MacArthur is also; he is the only man in the field, who possesses all the qualifications necessary, to do the job that lies ahead, an unknown will not do, a nice personality will not do, it must be a man of proven value. Eisenhower is decidedly pro-British. And so I believe that Gen. MacArthur is going to be our next President; and I believe that his Cabinet officers will be largely military men. The government today, from top to bottom, is rotten and un-American. Look up the record of Forrestal, in charge of our national defense: army, navy, marine and air forces. Do you think we are safe, with a man of that character in charge? A man of divided allegiance, a man from the enemy's camp. Later on I may give details of some of these men.

When MacArthur becomes President, I believe he will appoint a military man to replace Forrestal; I do not claim to know who that man will be, it may possibly be General Wainright, recently retired. MacArthur has every confidence in him. Remember, MacArthur was once Chief of Staff, he knows his men. I expect to see men like Major-General Mosely come out of retirement and be given responsible positions. I look to see men like Lindberg given their rightful place in national defense; only those who have been through the fire and not wavered, have a future. As Washington once said, Put none but Americans on guard. And so, many men who have been shunted to the rear because of their Americanism will be placed in key positions.

There are many patriotic leaders who will have to do a lot of readjusting if they are going to stay in the picture; their past utterances are going to be brought out into the limelight, and many of them will bite the dust for they failed in the crucial hour. It is true some of them made honest mistakes, but they will have to retract and get in line, or be thrown out of the picture. The fact that I have criticized some of them severely, doesn't mean that I am their enemy or that I bear them any ill will; it means that my allegiance to truth is the dominant factor in my life. And if revealing the truth hurt's their feelings and makes them mad, it simply proves that they don't belong in the picture; one who can not take criticism, no matter how high he may be, is not to be trusted. I don't mind how much abuse you pour on me; because if it is not true it reflects on the sender and not on me.

And so a new set of leaders is coming to the fore; or perhaps are going to be recognized. In the sedition case were some very outstanding men from the standpoint of Americanism; and some of these men will get public recognition for their courage and their faith and their vision of things American. Perhaps one of the most outstanding of these men is Col. Sanctuary; we disagree on theology very much, but when it comes to the subject of Americanism the Colonel is in the front ranks. On the subject of theology he allows it to blind him; remember, he was trained in the old school, which believes that the Israelites were all Jews; such is not the case. I believe his eyes will be opened on this point; but the Colonel will go down in history as a man of courage and vision, and a true patriot.

I was twice indicted in Washington, but eliminated from the third indictment, the one on which the trial was started. But I was also indicted in Los Angeles, and had the highest bail placed upon me of any in the field, namely, $30,000. At the preliminary hearing, I convinced the prosecutor that he was not trying me, but the Christian Bible; and I was the only one of the thirty defendants who took that stand. I gave the prosecutor an outline of what my defense would be, and it sent cold shivers down his spine; and his Jewish masters had to put on diapers when they read the report of the preliminary hearings in Los Angeles. A real American doesn't need anything but his Bible to defend his stand as a patriotic American; and I believe I can truthfully say I was the only one who saw that issue. The enemy was not willing to take a chance on being placed in the position of fighting the Christian Bible, that was more than they could take on at that time; since then, in subtle and diverse ways they have sought to undermine the Christian Bible.

I want you to bear that in mind; you must realize, that we Anglo-Saxons are Hebrews; Israelites; Semites. For that is the teaching of our Bible. It was during my persecution of '42 that the thought was born, that the Bible was my only defense, and our only defense as a nation. Repeatedly, as I sat in my cell, I heard a voice say, "The Bible is your only defense." Can you imagine that it took nearly 6 weeks to get a Bible to me? Finally it took a Jewish attorney to get it passed through to me. You see, I knew that my letters to my wife, and her replies, were read, and I did not pull my punches; I quoted Scripture freely. And don't worry but what they looked it up, and it gave them the blind staggers. That is why I was dropped from the third indictment in Washington. They delayed trying me on the Los Angeles indictment by sending me to Washington, I was too hot to handle to be tried on the first indictment there. I looked like a ghost; physically and financially I was, but I was forced to the expense of a preliminary hearing in Washington. They claimed they were to set a date for the Washington trial soon, and that I was not to leave. This advice I disregarded; I said 'I am going home'. My good friend, the late Jim Wilkinson said, 'Old timer, you had better stay here, or they will send the marshall after you.' I said 'Jim, the Lord tells me I am not going to be tried; I have gotten that distinctly, that they will never dare try me.' He pleaded with me, and said I was wrong, he had talked with Maloney and later with Rogge and said he was worried. But I told him to quit his worrying on my account, because he would never defend me in court, nor any of the others. At the same time, I was told that Sanctuary would play a very leading role in that trial, and he did; and the end is not yet.

This seems like a digression, but it is all apart of the picture. Men who are divinely inspired are going to re-establish this Republic, whether you believe it or not; it is going to take men with a brilliant mind, those capable of receiving divine inspiration, such as I received all the time that I was in the firing line and the time that I spent in the L. A. jail. Spiritually that was a wonderful time; physically it was a horrible crucifixion, and I expect vindication, for the dastardly treatment I received.

And so I prayerfully plead with every one of you who read this, to examine your own heart and mind; don't waste your time and energy getting mad at me because I happen to touch on a sore spot, you should thank me for pointing it out so that you can cure that sore spot. The point is, you must readjust yourselves and change your focus, and use your energies in supporting the right man or men. And I believe I have pointed my finger at that man. I do not have MacArthur's birth data, but shall appreciate it if any of you can supply it, for there should be astrological confirmation. I also want Eisenhower's chart, for I certainly want to compare those two men. It is possible that Eisenhower may be substituted for Truman, it depends upon how things develop in the meanwhile. That's all right with me although Eisenhower would pull more votes than Truman, Truman is too badly tainted; perhaps I should say polluted would be a better word.

It is too early to speak of the second place on the ticket, that is, the man for vice-president; I would like to see Bricker in that position, he is a man of proven worth, but the fact that he comes from the middle west, the same as MacArthur may kill his chances. He is the man who should be the vice-president; I do not think he has any chance for the first place. So send us in the birth data of these two men, or anyone else you think has a chance; let's analyze their charts; and if these do not bear out what I have stated here, I will say so. But from what I see now, I have set my goal, after preparing the deck for action, MacArthur for President in '48.

Just a word of warning; from many sources I have heard the statement that Russia will strike before the election; this I do not believe. That's as much as I care to say now. That means we have practically a year to clear the deck for action, for a decisive fight both at home and abroad. The enemy may strike before the new President has had time to clean house and install his own men; right after election is the critical time. Again, that is why we urge a house-cleaning and a readjustment of our sights. The booklet we printed, Washington's Vision in Action, gives the picture as I have seen it for the past ten years; if you haven't a copy, get one; send for them in quantity, and get them into circulation, for it is a rough sketch of our coming struggle, both from the standpoint of Washington's Vision, and the realistic, practical picture as it will unfold.

We are going to print extra copies of this issue, and I want every one of you to send in $1.00 for 6 copies, and then send them out to those who you think would be receptive. Don't send us the addresses; we would have to charge you 25¢ each straight for those sent out individually, but to one address they are 6 for $1.00. And permission is hereby given to reprint parts or the whole of this article, providing it is not changed in any way, and full credit is given for its source. We want a wide circulation, but we will not countenance a distortion of this message. We are now approaching the zero hour of our national life; and that zero hour is 1948, with the climax at the time of the election. And all your physical preparations, yes, and your spiritual preparations, and mental house-cleaning, must be done by the early part of '48; otherwise you will go into battle in a state of confusion. Your vision must be clear, or you will end up by fighting each other, as is the case at present. Without vision we shall perish; we need clear thinking, plus divine inspiration, if we are going to survive the great battle. And if you don't have it, step out of the picture, because you will only be a hindrance.

And may God guide and direct you in the decision that you will be forced to make, each and every one of you. No leader can leave God out of the picture in the coming struggle; and if he be led by God, he will be shown quite clearly that the hope of the world lies with Israel America, and there can be no substitute, nor divided allegiance. We invite correspondence with leaders, especially kingdom preachers, on this subject.

In closing, let me quote from a recent press item, referring to MacArthur:

"It is no secret that the General will then resign and return to the United States. He is more alert and vigorous today than he was a year and a half ago. No one, listening to him talk today, would dream that he is past Army retirement age.

The General simply amazed his visitors with his grasp of world problems. His crystal clear explanations of what he felt was happening in the world today--and what he believed should be done--had his listeners simply gasping. He talked rapidly and without notes for two hours.

As the party departed from the embassy one of the editors fervently remarked:

"What a man--what an American! If only all of America could have heard him!"

REINCARNATION

Judging from letters we have received from time to time, some of you people are very much disturbed, spiritually, over my insistence that Reincarnation is a fundamental law of life. A few, who are spiritualists, believe that they are born once, and then it is eternal progress in the spirit world. They are just as sincere in their belief as I am in mine; but it will not stand the acid test. The orthodox-Christian is pretty much in the same boat; he thinks Jesus saves him and that then he spends all eternity with Jesus Christ in heaven, in other words, eternal progress in the spirit world. They are not so far apart as they think they are. Now the fact of the matter is that Jesus did not teach either one of these theories; it was only after His death that His followers, especially after the 3rd century, began to re-vamp His teachings, violence was done to the teachings of Jesus in the days of Constantine.

Reincarnation was a commonly accepted doctrine when Jesus was on earth, and it was taken for granted; it was not a question of a new teaching, it had been taught by all religions, from their very inception. All the great religions of the world, including Christianity, originally taught reincarnation, and two thirds of the people on earth today accept it as a doctrine. That doesn't necessarily make it true, but it reminds one of the old saying, "Where there is smoke, there is fire."

Now regarding our spiritualist friends; a disembodied spirit has no way of knowing whether reincarnation is true or not, that knowledge does not exist on the astral plane. Forty years ago, no spiritualists believed in reincarnation; now, fully a third of them, or at least a fourth, accept it. And so they are not in a position to be dogmatic. They can, however, find out, by contacting some of the great teachers in the higher planes, who visit the astral but do not abide there permanently, for the astral or emotional plane is only a half-way house. Often I have heard a spiritualist say "They have gone too far for me to reach them, unless they come down." And the very best mediums are those who go beyond the astral plane. The astral plane has 7 divisions, and the average medium doesn't go beyond the first division; so the knowledge they glean is very mediocre, and often worthless. But I have met mediums who contact teachers of high degree, although they are extremely rare.

And so, the average spiritualist, or the average medium, is very strictly limited; they are like a fly on a globe, their vision is limited to a certain area. You see, there are four planes; the physical, the astral, or emotional, the mental, and then the spiritual; but the average spiritualist, when he talks about spiritual things, means psychic, or astral. But, there is a vast difference between the two. And so, you and I have physical bodies, we have an astral or emotional body, we have a mental body, and finally the spiritual body, that not more than about 2 or 3 per cent realize they have; it is so buried by the physical, emotional and mental that only at a time of great tragedy, when the other three are subdued, does it have a chance to break through. And that is where most of your so-called conversions come in; human beings are willing to listen to God, which is planted within the center of their being.

I saw this frequently in the Los Angeles County jail; men who were completely swept from their moorings and subdued; then the God within spoke to them. They didn't even know they had it before, but it was there all the time, as the poet says, closer is He than breathing, nearer than hands and feet. We think of God as a Being afar off, and yet He is in the center of our being all the time, you and I couldn't exist without God, and God, the Absolute, planted a part of Himself in every living soul; that's the life element. The average individual goes right through life without knowing God, and yet He is so close at all times. That is why I like to deal with people in hospitals and jails, the down-and-outs; all the props have been taken away from them. And I surely had a glorious opportunity the three months in jail; I helped men find themselves; yes, even the jailers. It was a field-day for me, rich in spiritual opportunities and experiences; I never felt so close to the source of life before, as I did during that period. I have the psychic faculties developed, too, for I was visited by five lawyers whom I had known before they passed over; they used to advise me what to say in court, and that was very comforting.

But, that isn't God; and that is where the average spiritualist falls down, he doesn't know God, he just has a substitute, a disembodied spirit. And I say this with the most kindly, sympathetic feeling in the world; I have tried so hard to get some of them a step higher. And it is because of the many letters we receive, that I am writing this article, in the hope that it will clear up some of the cobwebs. First, I want you to realize that God is with you at all times, and that He has given His angels charge concerning you; in addition to disembodied spirits who are interested in our problems - as I know from experience. I recall some 40 years ago I met a lady who was an invalid; she was a very delicate creature, like a piece of Dresden china, and she pulled on my sympathies very much. And there was a strong feeling that I had known her before. I meditated until the answer came through: she was the high priestess of the temple, away back in Egypt at the time the Pyramid was built, and I was the high priest. Some of the things that I taught at that time, through ignorance, were not so; and so I incurred a karmic debt with that soul, and I was shown that I had to serve her, and help her get on her feet, physically, mentally and spiritually. To the doctors, she was a conundrum; I was shown that her real trouble was spiritual; spiritual confusion, the seeds of which I had planted five or six thousand years ago.

And that is why I want some of you teachers to be careful of what you teach, because the law of cause and effect will compel you to balance the books. Let me give you an example: Mary Baker Eddy taught things that were false, and she knew it; she taught them because it would give her more power, and it did. But when she passed over into the spirit world, she was filled with anguish as she saw the result of her teachings.

The average person's religion is of the astral plane; and whilst they may despise spiritualists, they are in the same boat, and don't know it, because their religion is one of emotion. Go to the Holy Roller meeting, where they rant and rave and shout and speak in strange tongues. What is the difference, between a medium being controlled, and an orthodox Christian? I attended one of Father Divine's meetings in New York, on my way home from Washington on the sedition charge; and I watched those individuals, and saw them being controlled by disembodied spirits, spirits of a very low order, mostly Negroes. And some of them were white women; and to me it was the saddest sight I had seen in many a day. I remember two white women in particular, one an elderly woman and the other a handsome woman of around 25 or 30. I learned afterwards that she was a very clever musician; and that was what made her susceptible; most musicians are psychic. But what an exhibition she made of herself, under control! There wasn't much difference between that meeting and those of the most primitive savages who dance to the music of the tom toms. That is not religion in its higher sense.

Take the Episcopal and Roman Catholic churches; they are largely a religion of belief, certain mental concepts, and belong largely to the astral and mental planes. It is true, under great stress and strain, remarkable healings have taken place; but the religion itself is one of belief. The Catholic priest is a great contrast to the average medium, who is very mediocre, not very high grade, mentally whereas the average priest is well educated. But it is intellect, it is not emotion, and it is not spirituality, it is a mental concept of life. But in all religions, there exists a few who have the mental and the psychic plus the spiritual; 3 to 5 per cent at the outside of that type exist in any religion. You will find more of them in the esoteric schools, where esoteric or inner teachings are given. Even then, you will find it takes many years of teaching and training before they stand out. Most of you have met at least one of them, but did not realize the source of their power; it was soul knowledge.

Now to go back to reincarnation, after laying a foundation. Every living soul, if they have the power to meditate, and still their restlessness and powerful emotions, can know for a fact that they have lived on earth before. Personally, I have had many glimpses of the past, in different lives, from childhood on. At first I was puzzled at some of the experiences, they didn't make sense, for it did not agree with my Sunday-school and church teachings. The only thing that has saved me from going the way of the average, was the soul knowledge; intuition is the voice of the soul. Now, don't confuse intuition with conscience, they are entirely different; conscience is the result of education, so your conscience changes, or improves, as you acquire more knowledge, and your conscience of today is not that of tomorrow. So, conscience is not a reliable guide; the only reliable guide is the voice of intuition; but in the average individual it is so buried by the physical, astral and mental, that it doesn't have a chance to break through.

The Good Book says, "Be still, and know that I am God"; and that's the only way you will ever know God; it is to shut up, and listen. It is very hard to still the feelings and the intellect, they are like a babbling idiot; but you will never know God until you know how to still your restless mind and emotions. Meditate on this for the next thirty days; be still, and know that I am God. And I am convinced that some of you will have some remarkable experiences, because for the first time in your life the God within will have a chance to speak.

Some charts show a remarkable amount of intuition, for instance, the Moon in good aspect to Neptune or Uranus, or the Sun, especially if one of them falls in the 9th house, the house of higher mind. I happen to be well blessed in that respect; I say blessed, because it is something I have developed in the past. I have 4 planets trine to Uranus; one of them is Neptune, also the powerful Pluto. So you see the intuitive qualities in my case were strong at birth. But it sure gave me some headaches as a youngster, for its message was entirely different from my religious teachings in the Church of England; it did not agree with theology. It gave the correct answer when my elders passed judgment on things; and I often got into trouble for contradicting them. Very early in my life, my parents learned that my judgment of things was reliable; they didn't know why, nor did I. But I was always in hot water because I was at war with the accepted teachings of religion, philosophy and things in general. I was always saying "No, that's wrong"; but I didn't know why, and when I was asked I couldn't give a sensible answer, except: "Something in me says No." Of course, that was the correct answer; but I was very much confused. In times of stress and strain, the message would come through very clear.

My reasoning faculties are very quick; but, fortunately for me, my intuitive is quicker, and it would come through like a flash; and frequently I was in trouble again, as a result. Let me give you a concrete example: On May 20th, 1907, on my 22nd birthday, I smashed my left hand badly; it was crushed in a mill. Four fingers were amputated right away; and about two weeks later, seven doctors had a consultation and decided to take my hand off. I was all alone, in a strange country; I had left England just a year before; I was among strangers. But when those doctors said they were going to take my hand off, although I was very weak from loss of blood and nervous shock and frequently fainted away, I raised my hand (I couldn't sit up in bed) and solemnly told the doctors I would punch them in the nose if they tried it. I said, "Something inside me says, leave it alone, nature will heal." Then, I began to reason to myself: How do you know that? Well, I didn't. I was proud of my intellectual achievements, and thought it was superior to anything else; I didn't recognize intuition as a source of power, in spite of the fact that it had proven itself reliable from early childhood. But I couldn't touch, taste nor handle. Besides, I had become an unbeliever, an atheist, and despised religion in any form, God played no part in my life; at least I thought so. As a matter of fact, He was playing a very big part in His frequent warnings.

Friends, that still, small voice of intuition is the most reliable guide in the world. Yes, I know it will clash with theological teachings, the theological lunatics will try to down you, as they did me; I spent a very unhappy childhood as a result of that constant conflict; I was conscious of my own soul power and the psychic faculties were quite strong, too, and still are. I was in a constant turmoil; reason said one thing, intuition said something else. Your head doesn't know anything excepting through experience; but intuition has all the experience of yesterday in your lives to draw from; it knows who you were in your past lives, and what you did.

I have met many people in my life, whom I recognized immediately as having known them before; and for curiosity I used to draw up charts of those people, and the charts confirmed the testimony on my intuition. I told you of meeting a woman whom I had known as the high priestess of the temple; that recognition was almost instantaneous, I knew that I knew her from the past. When I met my wife, there was immediate recognition of other lives, we had worked together before; we had been husband and wife before. And so we fit like fingers in a glove; what is unnatural about that?

One of our readers, a man of 82, recently said, "I am worried, for fear that when I come back in my next incarnation, I will not know where my wife is; I suppose I will never see her again, and that's what worries me." There is a powerful spiritual tie between them, and he was pathetic and appealing. Well, I laughed; I said, "My friend, you couldn't keep her away from you with a machine gun; you will draw each other like a magnet, you can never separate from a person that you truly love." Wherever a strong love tie exists you will be drawn back together again; brother and sister, in some cases, or husband and wife, some family tie. And by the same token, if you hate a person you will draw them to you; that is why sometimes one member of a family is at odds with everybody; that family drew that rebellious soul through hatred in a previous life. Invisible chains will hold you, through either love or hate; so be careful how you hate; you will enmesh yourself with that soul until you learn to transmute that hate into love.

Love is the most powerful force in the world; hate is second. Hate is love turned upside down. There is only one force in the world, and that is God, and love is synonymous for God. In the new order, when Jesus reigns on earth, these things will be taught; the present day theologian will be thrown into the scrap pile, he will be forced to work for his living. I have analyzed the charts of a great many preachers, and only once in a great while did I find the chart of a real teacher; the chart of the average preacher and that of the average politician are identical.

Quite recently I got a complaining letter from a preacher; I had been getting them for ten years or more, and I got tired of it. He has the Moon in the 9th house; the house of religion, hence the desire to preach; but he has Mars in the 3rd, the house of lower mind, exactly the same degree as the Moon, and they are right in opposition; and so there is a constant conflict between the higher and lower mind. He is in a continual state of conflict, his vision is not clear; this man can't think straight for sour apples because of the inner conflict. The Moon in the 9th does give him glimpses of better things, but it is so badly afflicted that there is a distortion there. The only redeeming feature is that the Moon is in good aspect to Venus; and the only success he has ever had is pulling on the emotions of women.

I know a well known astrologer, with a powerful 9th house, but he has similar testimonies, Mars and Saturn in opposition, 3rd and 9th. But to go back to the preacher; his Moon not only afflicts Mars, but it is applying to an adverse of Uranus and opposing his Sun. The Moon rules the personality, and the Sun the individuality, and so he is rather combative, because of that inner conflict. He has something, and he knows it, but he mixes up the Mars in the 3rd house, lower mind, with his religion; as a result, a distorted picture; a false conception of life. He doesn't know what is wrong with him; he is a pathetic figure, nevertheless he is very dogmatic.

I have the charts of a few preachers who are spiritual giants, well balanced on all four planes; and it is very, very rare you will find an example like that. One of these men has contributed one of the chapters of our book, THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO AMERICA. When that man is on the platform or pulpit, there is spiritual fire at the back of his message, plus a logical sermon; he has a brilliant mind, but better than that, he has the ability to tap the spiritual reservoir of life, something very few preachers are able to do, they give a cheap substitute, of emotion. Now, you cannot do without emotion, you are dead without feeling; but emotion must not predominate, nor must intuition predominate, they must all be under control of the God within. This man, like myself, makes enemies among those of little, petty minds; but to me he is a spiritual treat; I know he is on the level, and I know he has spiritual power.

Here is the chart of another man, who is not quite so well balanced as the previous one, but his Mars is in the 9th house; he is on fire with zeal, and Mars is in a fire sign. He has no afflicting influences in the 3rd, but he has 5 planets afflicting Mars, and 3 of them from the 12th house, and so he is a man of sorrow, and acquainted with grief. And when he preaches a message, the sorrow of his own soul is poured forth; and believe you me, it affects his audience, but he has a tough time on the physical plane because of the afflictions in his chart. He has spiritual power, and you can feel it, in his writings and his preaching. This man, too, has written one of the chapters in THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO AMERICA. When our preachers take astrology and reincarnation seriously, they will be much better preachers and teachers; at present they are like a wheel with several spokes missing, and I have seen them break down under severe trial. I have seen them lose their mental balance, and I have seen them lose their faith in God. Now, if you ever make that inward connection, you can never lose your faith in God; it is only when you use a substitute. Again I say, Be still, and know that I am God.

When I criticize some of you people who write me, it is not with the idea of rapping you over the knuckles, it is because I want to put your feet firmly on the path of truth; that's the purpose of every real teacher, and that is what Jesus meant, when He said, I am the way; He had found the path, and He knew that if you follow the path that He was treading you will arrive at the same destination. Jesus knew that he had lived before; you will find confirmation of that in His statement, Before Abraham was, I am. He had lived even before the time of Abraham; he had led the world, or sections of it, more than once. And He will lead again.

Now, if Jesus can incarnate, so can you and I; Elijah and John the Baptist were one and the same. Elijah abused his power, and that is why, as John the Baptist, he lost his head. He took a life through the use of spiritual power, the sacred fire, and that was a transgression of spiritual law; and so, as John the Baptist, he lost his head, his life. That's the law of cause and effect.

Later on, I hope to write an essay on the use and misuse of spiritual power by some of the present day leaders; for I tremble as I see some of the things they do. We shall call it "Drunk with Power". And now I ask you to accept on faith the theory of reincarnation; for I assure you that I would not dare to teach it unless I knew it was a law of life, for I have suffered too much from some of my false teachings six thousand years ago, and have been liquidating those debts ever since. And so I say, belief doesn't save you, and no teacher can save you; the purpose of a teacher is to throw light on the path, and show you the path. That is why that Great Soul said "I am the way".

There are many proofs in the teachings of Jesus showing His recognition of reincarnation: 'Who has sinned, this man or his father?' The answer He gave shows that He knew it was a karmic debt. I don't just 'believe' I have lived before, I know I have lived before. I remember a lady coming to me, 12 or 15 years ago, and she was in great distress (and I have had hundreds of them come to me, in mental confusion). As I talked to her, all of a sudden I saw, not the woman but an Arab, riding bareback over the desert; and that was this woman in a previous life, wild and untamed and bloodthirsty. I was startled, for a moment, and then I understood why the spiritual confusion; I said, "You were very cruel in a previous life, and slew ruthlessly, and now you are paying, in blood and tears."

In 1918, in New York, I met a man considered a great teacher. He invited me to dinner one night; and we got into a hot debate. All of a sudden, I saw four priests standing at the back of him, and they were laughing; and as I stopped this man also seemed to be clothed in a clerical garb. Then one of the four stopped laughing for a moment, and said, "He was one of us, a priest, in his previous life." A man of autocratic power, and he had brought over that dominant spirit.

Still another case, a well known teacher, a specialist in his line. We got into a hot debate; and suddenly, I saw him dressed in the garb of an Italian general, I would judge at the time of the Caesars. And then I understood why the conflict; I, a priest, and he a powerful Roman general. I am giving you these examples, that you may know there are some who do know. And there are teachers today who know a great deal more about this than I do, for I have never regained the power that was mine when as a leader of the children of Israel I did things I should not have done. And so I have only my intuition left, as a memory of the power of those days. It is fragmentary, it is not complete.

When the law of reincarnation, or rebirth, is taught, people will be more careful of their actions, because they will know for a fact that they must reap whatsoever they sow. I am ever conscious of that one fact; that I shall reap what I sow. I am not infallible, and there are teachers on earth today who are far beyond me, some I could mention. But you are drawn to the teacher who is for you at that time; those who are too far ahead of you would only antagonize. You cannot accept truth until you are ready for it.

Some of you who have had spiritual experiences, have put the wrong label on them. You are not saved, the God within you broke through the physical, mental and emotional barrage, or obstruction, and you were delighted with it; but you put the wrong label on it. It is not salvation at all, but just a flash of the God within, and it broke through because you were crushed, physically, emotionally and mentally. The guards were down and the God within you spoke. Of course you were thrilled; who wouldn't be? It was a wonderful experience. Salvation is a long and tortuous path, or process; it is not accomplished in one moment, for as Jesus put it, 'to him that overcometh, will I give to eat of the tree of life.' You must overcome all the physical, then all the emotional, and finally, the hardest of all, you must control your mental body. And that is why it is so hard to convey spiritual truths to a man or woman without a strong intellect; intellect is their god, they are in bondage to it. They know they are above the average man or woman, and they think it is the goal; but it is not. Their proud intellect must be ground into powder eventually; to quote Scripture, unless ye become as a little child, you can in no wise enter the kingdom. That is true; that proud intellect must be humbled to the dust before the God within can break through.

And so you can see why it is necessary to have periods of silence and meditation; to be still, and know that God is. And your greatest progress is made when you are alone, and usually crushed with some sorrow or tragedy, all obstacles removed. Yes, it is true, man's extremity is God's opportunity. And so your first lesson is to learn that you have four bodies, and that at the back of them is the real you. Your bodies are not you; they correspond to the four elements in nature, earth, water, air and fire. And so you have an earth body, an emotional body, a mental body and a fire or spiritual body; and the latter is almost unknown to most of us, but it exists. And the purpose of life is to control your four bodies, instead of the four controlling you. And that is why we refer to Jesus as the Master Jesus; He had reversed the process and had full control of His four bodies. That's your job and mine; and when you have succeeded, and then only, can you truly say 'I am saved'. Saved from what? Saved from the carnal self; 'to him that overcometh . . .'. You must overcome and master the carnal self.

There are a few books that will help you; I would recommend The Aquarian Gospel of Jesus the Christ, and that you read of the various tests that Jesus went through in the esoteric school. You will find that in Section 8, starting on page 68 of this book; therein you will find the tests that every living soul must go through before they can say 'I am saved.' And you will find expediency a great handicap; for you and I have got to go through all these various tests, and not succumb to expediency for one moment. The average preacher is dominated by expediency, anything to get them by the immediate problem; so they are not reliable guides. If you haven't a copy of The Aquarian Gospel, by all means get one, and use it in your family worship; and when you read the tests that Jesus went through, it will take some of the conceit out of you to realize that you must go through those tests. And you go through them alone; and you cannot pass them successfully until you have learned to listen to the voice within, the God within you.

A copy of George Brownell's book on Reincarnation will help to strengthen your faith; but remember, you can know for yourself; the length of time necessary will depend upon yourself. Another wonderful book is Max Heindel's Cosmo-Conception. Max Heindel was a real teacher; he knew spiritual law. I only wish I could have been privileged to have that book as a boy, but it had not been written then. Max Heindel passed on in 1909. Those who know anything about spiritual law recognize that he was a real teacher; the fact that his followers do not live up to his teachings proves nothing against him. I have met skunks in human form who were pupils of Max Heindel, but they had long since ceased to follow his teachings.

If you are in earnest, the truth will be brought to your attention; but many of you reject it when it comes your way because it doesn't come the way you think it should. These three books I have mentioned will open up a new world to you. And, I may add, a copy of THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO AMERICA will be a splendid help, for it touched on a phase of spiritual law that the others do not in the same way. These books are listed in our book list in AMERICA SPEAKS, but as many of you take only the HERALD, we will give you the prices here: The Aquarian Gospel comes in two bindings, cloth at $3.00 and De Luxe at $6.00. Reincarnation is $2.00; Cosmo-Conception is $2.00 in cloth binding and $1.00 paper covers. And finally, our new book, THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO AMERICA, like THY KINGDOM COME and NATIONAL DESTINY, is $1.00 a copy, or 6 copies for $5.00; and you may order them assorted at that price.

It had been my hope, for nearly forty years, that I could draw together a group of men and women, as Abraham did, who believe in the laws of God and endeavor to practice them; and to withdraw from this Babylonian existence, that is a daily crucifixion to any sensitive soul. I hope this article will prove to be a help, to those of you who are struggling. The label you carry doesn't mean very much; the only thing that matters is, do you know God, and have you learned to listen to His voice? If not, you have not very much to lean on. This is written in an anguish of spirit; for I realize that soon America will be a shambles, that anywhere from 25 to 50 million, or even more, will lie dead here in America. And yet, I rejoice in that fact, for man never learns until he is humbled to the dust; and believe you me, America is going to eat humble pie, and is going to cry out to God in a loud voice, before very much longer; no longer will the easy path be ours. As a nation we have deliberately refused the easy way out, and now we have no choice but to take our medicine; and blood and tears, and oceans of it, will be shed here in America.

Your problem and mine, is not to save Europe, or Asia, or Africa, but to work out our own salvation, here, as a nation under God, America, the last hope of the Creator. He realizes that no other people have a possibility of making the grade; and I do not except England, mortification has set in, in the English nation, and the most enlightened of them will migrate to Canada, The United States and Australia chiefly. The dead wood will remain there and perish; that is the picture as I see it, and I cringe as I hear some kingdom preachers telling their people that we are going back under the Union Jack. We never will; America is the promised land, the modern Israel, and the Messiah will come back and take charge. Today, we are not ready for him, we would crucify him all over again. And that is why I have urged you, time and time again, to prepare to be a willing instrument when the Messiah returns. The averaged saved professing Christian will be useless to Him, because of their spiritual conceit, and their ignorance of spiritual law.

Practically all the old prophets are back in physical bodies today, waiting for the time when they will come forth as leaders under the great Messiah. The twelve disciples are already here, ready to acclaim the Messiah when He comes; and most of you are so spiritually blind that you do not recognize them when you meet them. I urge you, in the short time before all hell breaks loose, to prepare yourself to play a proper role, and help to lay the foundation for the new order, the kingdom of God on earth, with Christ as King.
